This is Mel's story...Just like other young men who have walked through Ettie Lee's doors, his stay at Ettie Lee was a life changer. "While at Ettie Lee I put in a lot of effort and I was able to stay more on task and accomplished the assignments, homework and projects as assigned by my teachers. This is what led me into the right place to improve my skills academically, and to stay away from the Juvenile Justice System," said Mel.

Two weeks before he was to be discharged at a previous facility, accusations triggered a fight between Mel and another youth. Fear took over and Mel, a meek youth with a criminal history, ran from the facility.

Now placed at Ettie Lee, we found that this father of a baby girl wanted to start a new life. He renounced his gang status and he embraced sobriety, by taking it one day at a time—substance use was tempting but becoming manageable.

Months later as Mel stood in front of the Judge who would determine whether or not he could go home, the Judge was shocked by his success. The Judge asked with sincere curiosity. "Why did you fail the other placement, but are so successful at Ettie Lee?" Mel clearly stated, "They are like a family to me."

Mel went on to describe how his therapist really helped him and how all of the staff members threw him a Daddy baby shower where he was able to take supplies and clothes to his baby's mama. "They told me I did not have to be the kind of father to my daughter that my dad was to me, and I knew that was true."

With his family away from his "hood" and a new commitment to his child, this young man may just make it.

From the President's Desk

Terri Varnum, M.A.

Under my leadership, Ettie Lee Youth & Family Services is restructuring, reforming, streamlining, and reorganizing the 64 year old agency to insure its relevancy for the next 60 years!

Prior to the last young man leaving the Brandes Home in Azusa in February 2013, I had already begun renewing relationships with additional contractors such as the counties of San Bernardino and Riverside as well as solidifying our relationship with Los Angeles County. Ettie Lee's relationship with the Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services remains solid as Ettie Lee's Foster Family Agency continues to grow (there are more than 60 children in care today). We have finalized 4 adoptions so far this year and anticipate the adoption of 5 siblings later this month. And, in an effort to reach out to even more children, Ettie Lee has added the Intensive Treatment Foster Care (ITFC) program to its services.

The addition of ITFC allows the placement of children with serious behavioral problems, who would otherwise require group home placement, to live with families in the community.

We are now serving children from our local communities, providing mental health, therapeutic behavioral and intensive substance abuse services.

Moving forward all six of Ettie Lee's residential facilities are receiving tender loving care—cleaning, painting and repainting—while we build specialized, targeted programs to meet the expressed needs of county probation and social services departments.

Intensive Treatment Foster Care

Jennifer Yang and Debbie Henderson are leading the effort to build Ettie Lee's ITFC program.

Ettie Lee Youth & Family Services is looking for extraordinary individuals who will make an important commitment to changing the life of one child—to become Intensive Treatment Foster Parents. Once the commitment has been made, the foster parent(s) receives training and support from Ettie Lee's qualified professional staff. This leads to you becoming a Certified Intensive Treatment Foster Parent.

Your focus will be on one child—who will have the chance to thrive with the special attention, skill, and patience that you have to offer. Your investment will be great, the expectations are high, and the rewards come from the knowledge that you have made a real difference.

Children six to 17 years of age who find themselves in Intensive Treatment Foster Care have serious emotional challenges and often have spent many years in many different group homes. Coming to Ettie Lee, these children receive careful attention and are matched with right the foster parent(s).

The program offers the team approach to treatment with the foster parent(s) as a part of the treatment team. A support counselor offers individualized counseling and emotional support, mentoring, and modeling skills for both the child and foster parent(s). Foster parents in this program receive a higher reimbursement rate for the care.

Holiday Heroes

The holiday season brings out the hero in all of us. This year was no different. We were so very happy to be the beneficiary of many, many gifts for our youth (and in some cases whole families) from:

Our Corporate Heroes are: Alcoa, Assemblymember Roger Hernandez, 48th District, Baldwin Park High School, Baldwin Park Unified School District, Denny's (Azusa and Grand Ave.), Friends of Foster Children, Haemonetics, Harrington Group, Lewis, Brisbois, Bisgaard and Smith, and the Pacific Palms Hotel and Conference Center.

Our Home Heroes are: Jean Arnott, Robertson; Lois Buchanan, John Eccles; Pat Giles, Brandes; Michelle Ramirez and Connie Hulet, Diamond L; Joyce Wing and Karin Rogers, Fontana.

A very special thank you to Pacific Palms Hotel and Convention Center for hosting more than 75 residents and staff at the 2nd Annual Holiday Party at the Hotel on December 19. The chocolate waterfall was a hit, yet again!

Honor Roll

"We never consider our gifts as a donation. They are investments."

Every Picture Tells A Story

Late last year, Ettie Lee Youth & Family Services met the standards for excellence in child and family services based on completion of accreditation through the California Alliance. Ettie Lee's President & CEO, Terri Varnum (center) is pictured with Carroll Schroeder (l) and Mary Kay Gerski (r) of the California Alliance at the award ceremony.

Our Friends at Alcoa Fastening Systems, City of Industry lovingly purchased not only gifts for a young foster child, but for his foster parents, the Villanuevas, as well.

Friends of Foster Children's annual Sugar Plum Tree at the Santa Anita Mall is staffed by volunteers each year. A few of the volunteers on December 13, 2012 were (from l to r) Sherrill Leavitt, Marta Viscara and Jack Alm.

Friends of Foster Children's Foster Caring Committee supports Ettie Lee every month! Recently they purchased supplies that will enable the youth to put together "life" books while they live at one of Ettie Lee homes.

The San Gabriel Valley YMCA and Y-ACES donated a whole bunch of canned goods for the children and families that we serve during the holiday season.

California State Senator Ed Hernandez and Suburban Water Systems provided turkeys during the holidays. Accepting turkeys is Vicki Mastro, Ettie Lee's Director of Development.

One of the projects that Alcoa volunteers participated in for their volunteer month, was to install a beautiful raised garden at Ettie Lee's John Eccles home.

Ettie Lee is proud to participate in the Los Angeles Department of Water and Power's Donor fair held each autumn. LADWP employees have supported Ettie Lee for more than 30 years.
